The non-Canadian tuition prices in this table are approximate only and are based on exchange rates provided by the Bank of Canada as of April 4, 2025. They do not include 5% Canadian Goods and Services Tax. The exact tuition you are charged by your financial institution when you register will depend on the exchange rate used by your financial institution at the time of registration, as well as any fees your financial institution charges for the exchange. Consult your financial institution for their foreign currency exchange policy.
